I remember when I started to realize that vaccines do nothing but kill and maim. I started to put together that my own ill health was because I had been vaccinated. The vaccines damaged my tonsils, damaged my ears, and then the doctor's meddled with me which led to all sorts of other complications. If they just left me well enough alone I would never have had such problems. I started to make the connections that this world lies to you, tricks you, and force-feeds propaganda to you. I started to peer through the veil. I realized in my late teens that modern medicine was sketchy at best and murderous at worst.

When I was 37, I had a baby completely outside of the medical cartel. I never vaccinated her or drugged her in any way. Her health is vigorous, and her mind and body are strong and well. My friends who also were aware and avoided the lies of the death cult all have strong and rigorous children. The proof is evident. My 14 years of experience as a natural health practitioner proved well to me that vaccines were the root cause of most of the health issues that walked into my office.

Yet here we are now, the same scams, the same lies, the same propaganda with the same outcomes: the destruction of life in all its forms.

Are we really going to just let this cycle repeat, over and over again? Are people really going to pretend they're baffled at why their children are dying in their sleep after a few of the clot shots? Surprised about autism rates? Shocked as to why their kids are always sick? Are we going to ignore the mental illness that these governments and their handlers have caused? Haven't we suffered long enough at the hands of these lying devils who pretend they care about us?

The book The Story of a Great Delusion by William White from 1885 discusses the disgusting and deadly practices of the charlatan Edward "Fast Eddy" Jenner with variolation and vaccination regarding cowpox and smallpox that killed and maimed thousands of children.

The mothers, particularly, were screaming from the rooftops during this time to try and stop this mob-rule mentality from killing their children, but alas, we see the same mental disease to this day.

THE RECRUDESCENCE OF LEPROSY AND ITS CAUSATION by WILLIAM TEBB published in 1893 is a 400-page book with testimony after testimony like the following:

Page 36. The lancet for May 25th, 1889, states that vaccination was made compulsory in the seventh year of Meiji (1874). It will be noted therefore that the rapid diffusion of leprosy Took place shortly after the introduction of the compulsory law and has kept pace with the progress of vaccination.

Page 37. Like some others, Dr. Zambaco has come to the conviction that Leprosy is non-contagious. There are about 250 lepers, all of whom Dr. Zambaco has personally attended.

Page 43. Another outbreak of smallpox occurred in 1873, and yet another in 1881, both followed by general arm-to-arm vaccination.

Page 58. In all the French colonies vaccination has been prosecuted with rigour and has been followed by the increase of leprosy. Just as in England the increase of infantile syphilis is due to arm-to-arm vaccination, as shown in the third report of the Royal Commission on Vaccination.

Page 78. In a communication to the Government of Hawaii, Dr. Kynset remarks that leprosy is chiefly found among the poor, ill-fed, ill-housed classes of the community.

Page 80. Dr. G.A. Hanson says: I do not think there is any danger whatever. It is a remarkable fact that not one of the nurses or servants in our Asylums (Norway) has caught the disease, although they daily wash and dress the patients.

page 81. Every nurse, doctor, attendant or laundress, in the hospital, is bound to come in repeated contact with pus from ulcerated tubercles. It is only by the insertion of the leprous virus into the blood, through a sore, prick or abraded surface, that the disease is communicable <my note, that was a belief, not evidenced by science>. This view is now held by the highest authorities in all parts of the world.

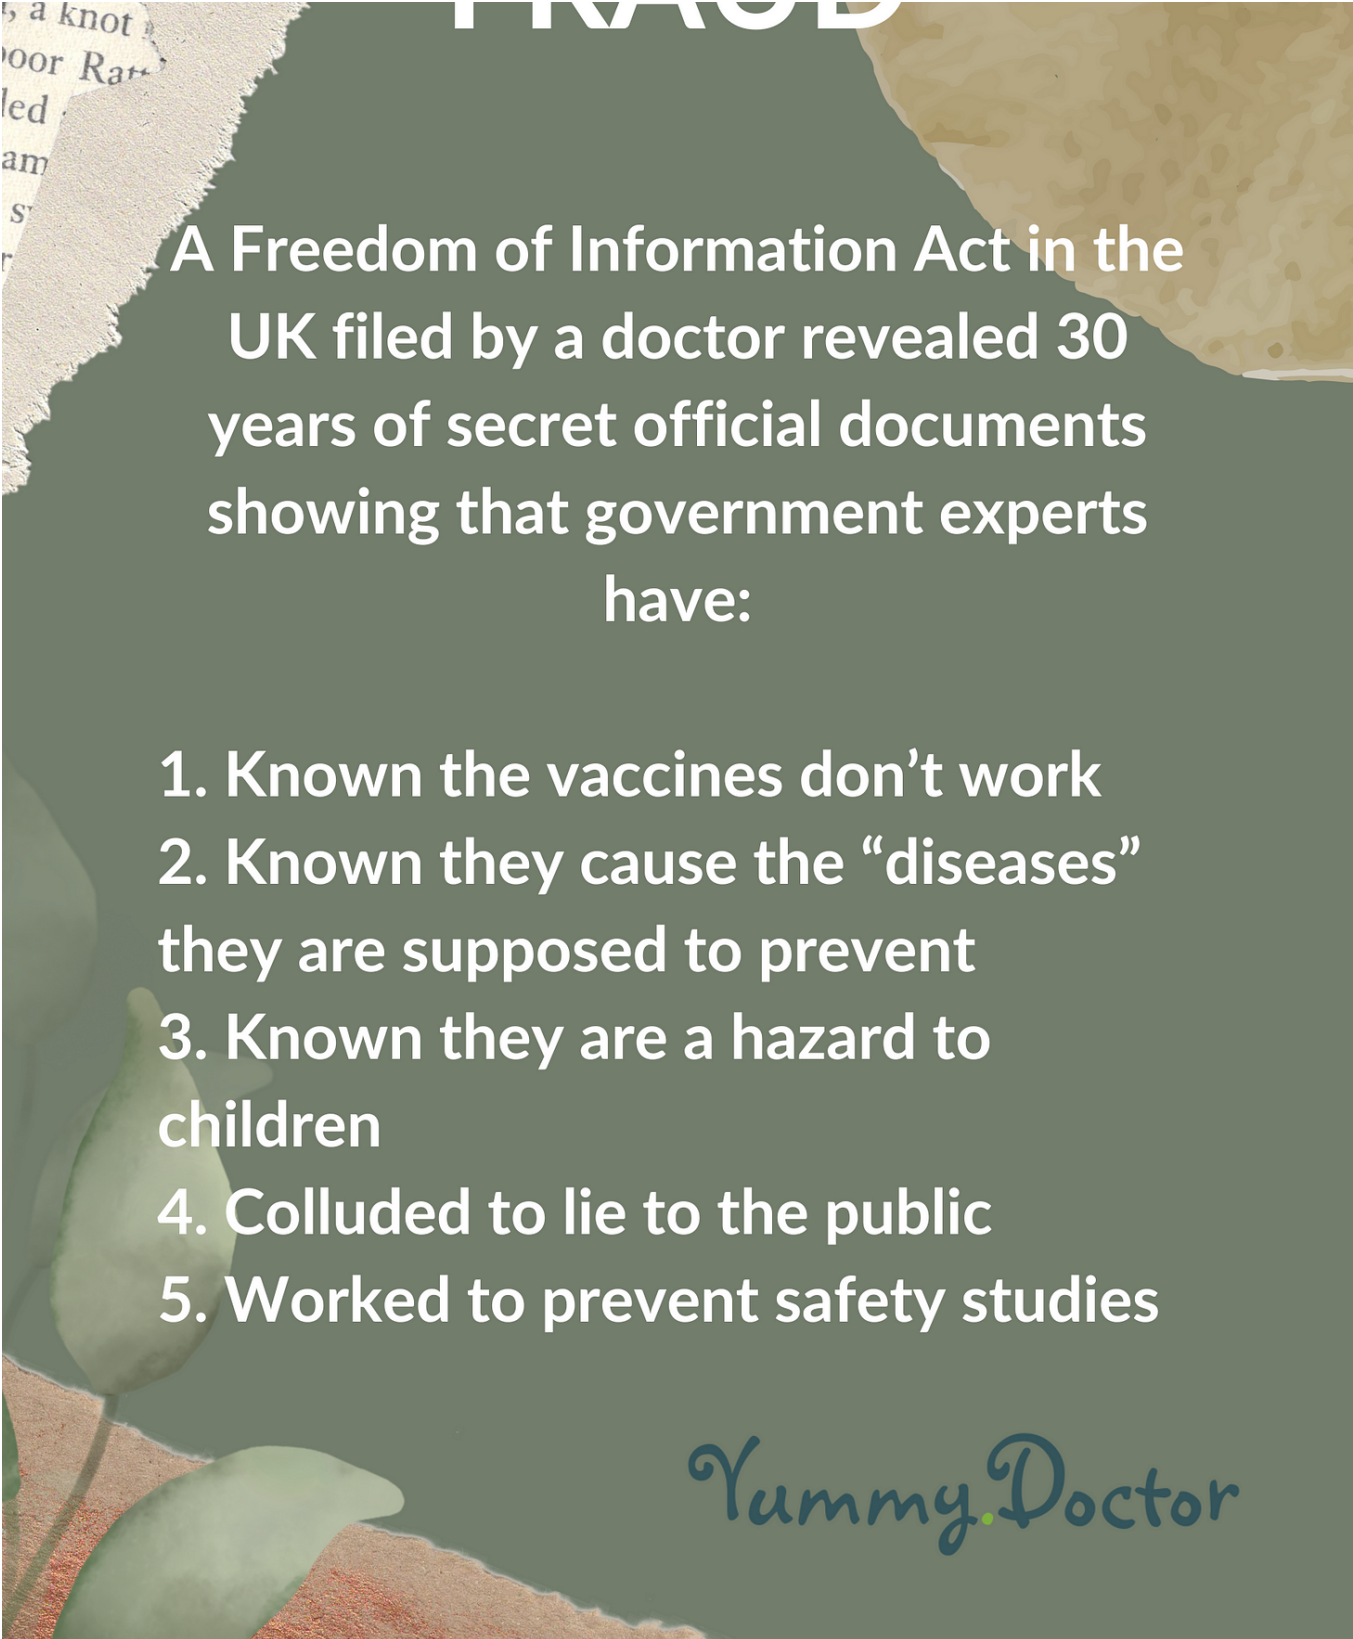

Page 82. I said to the lady superintendent (of Dominican Sisters), who had been in charge of the institution for 17 years, "Have you no fear of contagion?" Not the slightest," she promptly replied. And you and your assistants do all that conscientious nursing requires? Certainly, and feel a joy and privilege to be of service to these afflicted people. Has any case of infection by contact to doctor, nurse, attendant, or laundress ever been reported during your superintendence? "Not one."

Page 83. At the leper asylum in Ceylon, I learned that the laundry work had been managed by one family for three generations, and no case of infection had ever been recorded of laundress, nurse, or doctor.

How many more decades need to pass before we make the simple and obvious connection that vaccines damage the body, trigger detox mechanisms (and often damage them) that they designed the vaccines to mimic, and lead to debilitation and death? When will we undo the mind control programming that these disease-states are not diseases at all but expressions of correction and are not contagious?

How long is it going to take for us to notice how corrupt the vaccine industry really is and that the organizations involved in promoting them always have conflicts of interest: a revolving door between said industry, governments, and alphabet corporations (CDC, FDA, Health Canada, NIH and all the various Departments of Health (DH))? At this point, it is the willful ignorance of truth and the evidence of their fraud is piled to the rafters.

A Freedom of Information Act in the UK filed by a doctor revealed 30 years of secret official documents showing that government experts have:

- 1. Known the vaccines don't work
- 2. Known they cause the "diseases" they are supposed to prevent
- 3. Known they are a hazard to children
- 4. Colluded to lie to the public
- 5. Worked to prevent safety studies

A Freedom of Information Act in the UK filed by a doctor revealed 30 years of secret official documents showing that government experts have:

1. Known the vaccines don't work
2. Known they cause the "diseases" they are supposed to prevent
3. Known they are a hazard to children
4. Colluded to lie to the public
5. Worked to prevent safety studies

Yet despite the obvious corruption, they are still allowed to have such public sway and stature? What the hell is wrong with mankind that they still permit this insanity?

The vaccination policy and the Code of Practice of the Joint Committee on Vaccination and Immunisation (JCVI): are they at odds? By Lucija Tomljenovic, PhD Neural Dynamics Research Group, Dept. of Ophthalmology and Visual Sciences, University of British Columbia, 828 W. 10th Ave, Vancouver, BC, V5Z 1L8, lucijat77@gmail.com

Assertions:

In summary, the transcripts of the JCVI/DH meetings from the period from 1983 to 2010 appear to show that:

- 1) Instead of reacting appropriately by re-examining existing vaccination policies when safety concerns over specific vaccines were identified by their own investigations, the JCVI either,
 - a) took no action, b) skewed or selectively removed unfavourable safety data from public reports, and c) made intensive efforts to reassure both the public and the authorities of the safety of respective vaccines;
- 2) Significantly restricted contraindications to vaccination criteria in order to increase vaccination rates despite outstanding and unresolved safety issues;
- 3) On multiple occasions requested vaccine manufacturers to make specific amendments to their data sheets, when these were in conflict with JCVI's official advice on immunisations;
- 4) Persistently relied on methodologically dubious studies, while dismissing independent research, to promote vaccine policies;
- 5) Persistently and categorically downplayed safety concerns while over-inflating vaccine benefits;

6) Promoted and elaborated a plan for introducing new vaccines of questionable efficacy and safety into the routine paediatric schedule, on the assumption that the licenses would eventually be granted;

7) Actively discouraged research on vaccine safety issues;

8) Deliberately took advantage of parents' trust and lack of relevant knowledge on vaccinations in order to promote a scientifically unsupported immunization program which could put certain children at risk of severe long-term neurological damage;

Notably, all of these actions appear to violate the JCVI's own Code of Practice (http://www.dh.gov.uk/prod_consum_dh/groups/dh_digitalassets/@dh/@ab/documents/digitalasset/dh_115363.pdf)

She goes on to say. "Here I present the documentation which appears to show that the JCVI made continuous efforts to withhold critical data on severe adverse reactions and contraindications to vaccinations to both parents and health practitioners in order to reach overall vaccination rates which they deemed were necessary for "herd immunity", a concept which with regards to vaccination, and contrary to prevalent beliefs, does not rest on solid scientific evidence as will be explained. As a result of such vaccination policy promoted by the JCVI and the DH, many children have been vaccinated without their parents being disclosed the critical information about demonstrated risks of serious adverse reactions, one that the JCVI appeared to have been fully aware of. It would also appear that, by withholding this information, the JCVI/DH neglected the right of individuals to make an informed consent concerning vaccination. By doing so, the JCVI/DH may have violated not only International Guidelines for Medical Ethics (i.e., Helsinki Declaration and the International Code of Medical Ethics) but again, their own Code of Practice (see above for link)."

How much more obvious does their corruption need to get for people to wake up? The vaccine for fake covid is maiming and killing hundreds of thousands of people, including children, right before our very eyes, yet the pushers of the clot shot remain steadfast inside their “safe and effective” hypnotic trigger phrases and rhetoric.

How much more obvious does their corruption need to get for people to wake up? The vaccine for fake covid is maiming and killing hundreds of thousands of people, including children, right before our very eyes, yet the pushers of the clot shot remain steadfast inside their “safe and effective” hypnotic trigger phrases and rhetoric. People are being astroturtted by the idea of COVID (not a virus, not a disease, but merely a cyclical and variating detox expression (symptoms of a body healing) from years of exposure to various poisons that the very same people promote and “regulate”). Convid, as I call it, is a rebranded flu idea, which is simply detox. These liars capitalize on ignorance, as only Dummies Get Flu Shots.

What Is The Herd Immunity Theory?

The herd immunity theory was originally coined in 1933 by a researcher called Hedrich. He had been studying measles patterns in the US between 1900-1931 (years before any vaccine was ever invented for measles) and he observed that epidemics of the illness only occurred when less than 68% of children had developed a natural immunity to it (some sources show even lower percentages). This was based upon the false assumption that children build their own immunity after suffering from or being exposed to the disease.

The vaccine industry stole the idea and raised the number to 80%, later to 95%, as these are not men and women of science, they are frauds who lie, making up statistics as they wish in order to coerce people into vaccination, manipulating the good natures of most people against themselves. This idea was never put to rigorous scientific scrutiny. Essentially, they took Hedrich’s study and manipulated it to promote their vaccination programs.

How many people falsely believe that they will protect others by getting vaccinated? How many people are told they are doing some sort of civic duty by rolling up their sleeves? How many children are guilted into taking something their instincts say no to because their parents tell them it will protect grandma? Well, it’s a complete sham. It is nothing more than false advertising backed, not by science, but by propaganda and agenda. Mankind should be raging at being manipulated into such a deep delusion as this. Instead, the false theory of herd immunity is being used to guilt people into taking a product that we know only harms, damages fertility, lowers IQ, and leads to an early grave.

However, once the false germ theory was inserted into the minds of mankind, people assumed contagion rather than understanding that expression of illness (symptoms) are caused by common exposure to toxins (like arsenic, DDT, heavy metals, vaccines, lead, etc.), stressful emotional states, and often coupled with complication of detoxification caused by nutritional deficiencies. So the herd immunity theory was, in fact, about natural disease processes and had nothing to do with vaccination, a synthetic idea of “immunity”, another term hijacked by the vaccine industry and made to be something it is not (as we do not have an immune system).

The concept of vaccine-mediated “herd immunity” is based on the assumption that vaccines are effective in conferring immunity to the individual. If this were so, then how does one explain outbreaks of so-called “infectious diseases” in populations where over 95% of individuals have been vaccinated?

Gustafson et al. [17] “An outbreak of measles occurred among adolescents in Corpus Christi, Texas, in the spring of 1985, even though vaccination requirements for school attendance had been thoroughly enforced. Serum samples from 1806 students at two secondary schools were obtained eight days after the onset of the first case. Only 4.1 % of these students (74 of 1806) lacked detectable antibodies <learn about the antibody scam here> to measles according to enzyme-linked immunosorbent assay, and more than 99 % had records of vaccination with live measles vaccine...After the survey, none of the 1732 seropositive students contracted measles. Fourteen of 74 seronegative students, all of whom had been vaccinated, contracted measles. In addition, three seronegative students seroconverted without experiencing any symptoms. We conclude that outbreaks of measles can occur in secondary schools, even when more than 99 percent of the students have been vaccinated and more than 95 percent are immune.”

This has some other implications. Say that Hedrick and any others who may have noticed a natural phenomenon (if it is natural then we can assume many more would have seen a pattern well before him) of regular, cyclical waves of sickness (healing expressions of toxins, expressions of waste to prepare for rapid growth, as seen in children - i.e. measles, mumps, chickenpox, roseola...) seemed to affect only a certain percentage of a population in a repeatable, measurable way, aside from simple locality, which would have to rule out a mass poisoning event (i.e. arsenic, DDT, lead as commonly seen epidemics) then it seems the wisest course of action, would be to allow nature to give us better numbers. The vaccination idea seems rudimentary and idiotic to go against the flow of nature’s patterns with such a vast gap in efficacy.

If they are going to play make-believe with their theory, they should at least have some anecdotal evidence to prove their claim, no? However, this is not evidenced in vaccinated populations. Wouldn’t any group that claims to be scientific, ethical, and correct take a look at the real data and apologize for their mistakes? Since we only ever witness them employing coercion, lying, falsifying information, and obfuscating data, can we not make the simple assumption these agencies are corrupt and have no authority over our health? Is mankind that far gone and so distracted they are still happy to hand their children over for sacrifice?

Take Back Your Power

All disease states are caused by toxemia and/or deficiencies. No virus has ever been isolated. The ignorance around these basic and scientifically provable facts is staggering and seemingly has worsened as the agenda to dumb-down mankind (with manipulated foods, aerosols, vaccines, drugs, technology, etc.) and weaponize every avenue of information is at an all-time high.

The ignorance around these basic and scientifically provable facts is staggering and seemingly has worsened as the agenda to dumb-down mankind (with manipulated foods, aerosols, vaccines, drugs, technology, etc.) and weaponize every avenue of information is at an all-time high.

It is up to each individual to inner-stand the con of vaccination, to stand strong for their families and children to protect them from this blatant and deadly practice stemming from demented death-cult insanity.

Vaccines are 100% medical fraud and should be abolished on every possible level. No vaccine helps anyone with anything, it is a stain upon humanity and is evidence of how far mankind has fallen away from health and truth.

With integrity, ADV.

Amanha, Deepest respect for standing in your power to dig through the muck and bring nature's truths forward, this is simply normal life, unfortunately the mountains of lies keeps us in a state of constantly destroying these constructs with ease and the saddest is the destruction we see and the needless suffering and lives cut short for no reason at all. I have learned and shared so much that you have uncovered to hopefully get through to just a few, as the Great Manual of Regeneration says, seek and we shall find, and these truths will set us free. I have 3 son's & 1 daughter, 22, 20, 18 & 14, home water births, never injected, all very healthy & never ill. If i found mountains of info on BIG PHARMA 24 years ago, it is very sad that others are learning the hardest way possible.

I Love & Cherish your Great & Humble contributions to Mankind's steadfast reawakening! ♥
